Library Remodeling Project

The Library will be making improvements to the existing space. Between October and next April, there will be construction in the lobby, Community Room area, and also in the main library. In the Youth Services Department, more computers will be added, as well as a new space for preschool children and their families.

Sometimes you will be directed to use a different entrance during the remodeling period. It is also possible that Library hours may have to be adjusted because of work being done. Please call 630-653-0755 or check the web site at www.cslibrary.org before visiting. An outside book return will always be open.

Got homework? Need help?

Live Homework Help is only a click away!

Students in Kindergarten & up can get homework help every day of the week from 2:00-9:00 p.m.

Go to www.cslibrary.org. Click on this button. Here's how Live Homework Help works: just click your mouse to be connected to live tutors who will help you solve your homework problems in all subject areas.

Next day at school...

You Wouldn't Want to be . . . without a library card!

There is a popular series of books called "You Wouldn't Want to..." that humorously relates events, often gruesome, of various historical time periods. What does that have to do with a library card? September is Library Card Sign up Month and if you don't have a library card you can't check out these lively non-fiction books aimed at grades 3 and up. Get it?

Bring mom or dad to the Library with their identification to get you a library card. Then, ask a Librarian to show you some of these enjoyable books.

New School Tools— TumbleBooks & TumbleReadables

The TumbleBook Library is a collection of animated talking books that can be accessed online from home or at the Library. There are lots of titles to choose from and you can listen or read along. You can even choose to play games about the books.

Bibliographies to the Rescue

Now that school has started, it won't be long until your teachers ask you to read 20 minutes a day or read different genres of books to keep your reading skills sharp. That is where the Library's bibliographies come in handy! Ask a Librarian for a booklist for your grade and you can sample a variety of books that are just right for you!

Or, if you would like to read a genre like Mysteries or Science Fiction, we have those lists, too, and lots more. Just ask.
