Holiday Cheer at the Library

This is the season for spreading good cheer. The Youth Services Department has planned some fun programs during December. Plan to attend one or several of these entertaining events!

Jingle Bell Express

Saturday, December 2

10:30-11:30 a.m.

Tickets available at the Youth Services Desk

Musical fun for the whole family! Enjoy the morning program and hum the melodies all the way home.

American Girls®

Wednesday, December 13

7:00-8:00 p.m.

Sign up begins Saturday, December 2

For ages 8 & up

Girls who like the American Girls® series are invited to share their holiday traditions with the group and create a special craft item to take home. Bring your favorite doll and dress up for the evening.

Help trim our tree!

Bring a handmade ornament to the Youth Services Desk during December and a Librarian will give you a thank you gift in return. There are plenty of books available for ideas! Ask a Librarian to show you where they are.

Saturday Chess

December 16 & January 20

1:30-2:30 p.m.

For ages eight and up

Bring a friend or join the group of chess players who gather once a month to enjoy some matches.

Saturday Chess is open to children ages eight and up who have a basic knowledge of the game. Sign up at the Youth Services Desk or call 630-344-6127.

Holiday Movie: Hoodwinked

Thursday, December 28

1:30-2:50 p.m.

For ages five and up

There's trouble in Little Red's neighborhood. You know the classic story but there's another side to the tale. Drop in to watch the action unfold. This film is rated PG.

Winter Reading Program

Time Flies with a Good Book!

January 2–February 24

Start off the New Year by joining the Winter Reading Program and get a bonus gift, just for signing up! Then take off with your booklog and fly through the pages of some good books. When you have finished recording your books, return the log to the Youth Services Desk for more prizes. Remember to stop reading long enough to participate in some of the Library's events.

Trading Card & Board Game Day

Tuesday, January 2

1:30–2:30 p.m.

For ages eight and up

No registration required

Hey, fans of trading card games and board games, visit the Library on Tuesday, January 2 for an afternoon of fun. This drop-in program is for children ages eight and up—just grab a friend and come to the Community Room. We will supply board games but you are welcome to bring one of your favorites, as well as your best deck of trading cards, like Yu-Gi-Oh or Magic–The Gathering. Remember, there is no buying, selling, or trading of cards.

School's Out Special

Magic Show

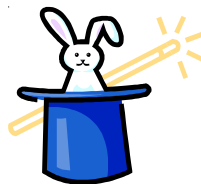

Monday, January 15

1:30–2:30 p.m.

For ages five and up

Tickets available Saturday, January 6

Everyone loves magic! Steve Chezaday will be here for an afternoon of amazement and entertainment. You'll leave wondering how Steve did all those magic tricks. Reading Patch Club members will be recognized prior to the show.

Reading Patch Club

The Reading Patch Club is looking for new members. Students in grades K-6 are eligible to participate in this program. They choose to read books in different areas, complete an activity and earn patches for their backpack or tote bag.

Library Holiday Closings

Sunday, December 24

Monday, December 25

Monday, January 1

Wishing you
Happy Holidays
and a terrific New Year!
