CAMP HIAWATHA

Under Construction

Summer Reading • Now through August 11

Camp Hiawatha is our annual summer event where we encourage reading, creating, and having fun. Join one of our three reading challenges: Kids (babies-age 12), Teens (ages 13-18), or Adults (ages 19+). The more you read and the more you participate, the more prizes you can win. At the end of the summer, we're giving away amazing gift baskets for each age group.

For more information about how to participate, please visit cslibrary.org/camphiawatha, drop by in person, or call us at 630-653-0755. To find out what we're up to this summer, visit cslibrary.org/attend.

Library Renovation Updates

We're happy to announce that phase 1 renovations will be done in early July. Phase 1 work included staff areas, public restrooms (including a new family restroom), and the west side of the lobby. Phase 2 will cover the east side of the building, including the lobby, staff areas, and program rooms, while work continues on the back wall of windows. We anticipate that phase 2 will conclude at the end of August.

We are hosting events at locations around the area. Look for the OFFSITE! label in the Library newsletter and on our online calendar.

We appreciate your patience while we transform the Library! Get regular progress updates at cslibrary.org/renovation, in our print and email newsletters, and on social media.
